From the President:

Welcome to 2014 – February already!

Cyclone season – Dylan has passed and Edna is on her way. The Barrage gates are open and water and greenery is rushing past Rockhampton.

It was great to see so many members at our Christmas meeting and our January planning meeting. The acoustics at our venue were not fantastic, so please check the 2014 “plan” in this newsletter and bring any comments to the next meeting. It was a pleasure to welcome three guests to our last meeting. Thank you to our meeting organizers.

Trish and her committee have organized our IWD Breakfast for March 6 at the Frenchville Club. We all need to promote the event and our two awards – YWPA and the Living Treasure Award. Valda will welcome your donations to the up market Pamper Pack raffle at the next meeting.

The Zonta says NO to Domestic Violence campaign is ongoing, so keep your orange aprons and shirts at the ready.

Registrations for the Area Meeting at Bundaberg on 29/30 March have opened. Check your email for the forms.

I'll finish with a quote from Michael Dell—“There's always an opportunity to make a difference” and it's easier to do it as a group.

See you all at the next meeting – with lots of bookings for IWD.

Meredith
